Become a Member of Senshin Buddhist Temple

A member of the temple is someone who comes to it, who plugs in to it — to be energized by its life and contributes to that life energy. It is very hard to make sense of Jōdoshinshū — it takes work, trying to understand its very different point of view and experiencing how it translates into everyday actions.

What is Membership?

Becoming a member of the temple is an expression of your commitment to Senshin Buddhist Temple. It is a demonstration of annual financial support to the religious programs and operations of Senshin.

Senshin Buddhist Temple is a member of the Buddhist Churches of America (BCA), the central organization which provides services, such as religious resources and programs for ministers, to its affiliated temples.

A portion of your Senshin membership fee includes membership to BCA.

Why is it important to become a Member?

The temple maintains its operations and activities through fundraisers, contributions, and membership.

Your membership helps to support a full-time minister, temple services, special activities, and operation and maintenance of the facilities.

What is the cost of Senshin Membership?

The following are the Membership categories and fees. (Fees include BCA Membership). Seniors over 80 years of age are exempt from paying Senshin membership dues. However, seniors wishing to receive the BCA Wheel of Dharma newsletter must pay the BCA membership fee.
