

We like to sing Seiya at the Sunday service. Although, we have many other Buddhist gatha to choose from and the lyrics are in Japanese, somehow, the chairpersons often selects Seiya for us to sing. And no one complains. Probably, one reason we like Seiya is the soaring but grounded melody. Overall, the melody sounds bright, but it is not too bright. It sounds melancholy too. Such a melody matches the Buddhist expression of the Truth where two opposites co-reside together. As Buddhists, we like this kind of melody.

The lyrics were originally a poem composed by Lady Takeko Kujo (1887-1928), who was the sister of the 22nd Monshu (Head Priest) of Jodo Shinshu Hongwanji school, Kozui Ohtani. After her marriage, she changed her family name to Kujo.

Lady Kujo is known as the co-founder of Fujinkai or BWA (Buddhist Women's Association). She and her sister-in-law, Ohtani Kazuko founded the BWA in 1907. As the leaders of BWA, they worked hard to establish the girls' high school and the women's college in Kyoto to give Buddhist education to the young women. In addition to founding the Fujinkai and the schools for Buddhist women, she founded a hospital. In 1923, the big earthquake hit Tokyo, causing huge damages all over the city. About 1,900,000 people were devastated and 100,000 people died. She helped to rebuild Tsukiji Hongwanji and provided medical treatment to the victims of the earthquake. She played an active part, not only in Jodo Shinshu temples, but also outside of the temples for the public welfare.

Hence, Lady Kujo was a very influential figure in Hongwanji. She was also very popular among Japanese people in those days. She was admired as one of the top beauty celebrities and her lifestyle was featured in Japanese women's magazines. Her collected poems became a best-selling book named Muyuge as well as her picture and poster. In 1928, at the age of 41, six months after publishing her collection of poetry, she passed away due to an illness. It is said that she passed away while reciting the nembutsu. After she died, a movie company made a film of her life and her poetry in honor of her work.

The song, Seiya, appears in her book, Muyuge. I would like to add the English translation below:

Seiya (peaceful night)

“How beautiful the starry sky!
Who could know the mystery of the heavens?”

When these countless eyes shine brilliantly,
My heart is filled with joy!

More numerous than the sands of the Ganges are the Buddhas.
When I heard that they watch over us night and day,
My heart is filled with peace.”

In this poem, Lady Kujo compares the stars to the Buddhas as the numerous numbers of stars in the sky and the numerous numbers of Buddhas watching over us. Sometimes stars are related to the deceased. A Greek philosopher of the 1st B.C.E. seriously mentioned that the deceased becomes a star.

Traditionally, in Jodo Shinshu, the deceased are respected as Buddhas, protecting us and guiding us to be born in the Pure Land. Shinran Shonin composed a Wasan (hymn):

“When we say Namu-amida-butsu,
The countless Buddhas throughout
the ten quarters,
Surrounding us a hundredfold, a thousandfold,
Rejoice in and protect us.”

As the poem relates, we can think that Lady Takeko Kujo, together with masters of Pure Land teaching, our ancestors, family members, and the temple pioneers have become one of the shiny eyes in the night sky or one of the Buddhas who protects us all the time.

「聖夜」と九条武子さま

日曜日のお参りで仏教讃歌の「聖夜」を歌うことがたびたびあります。一ヶ月に2回くらい歌うこともあり、日本語の歌詞ですが、みんな好きな曲です。ひとつにはメロディーが仏教的だからではないでしょうか。明るく高揚感がありながら、少し抑えられたものの悲しさも同時にあり、二つの反するものが同時に存在しているという仏教的なもの

の見方がメロディーから感ぜられます。

また、歌詞が仏教の教えを詩的に表現されているところも曲が好かれる理由でもあります。

1911年に籌子さまがお亡くなりになった後、武子さまは仏教婦人会の会長に就任。1928年に起こった関東大震災で倒壊した築地本願寺の復興、被災した方々のための救

援活動、病院の設立など、本願寺内外でたいへん活躍されました。

そんなこともあって、武子さまは本願寺関係だけでなく、広く日本中の国民にその名を知られていました。当時の日本三大美女として崇められ、婦人向け雑誌に、武子さまのライフスタイルの特集が組まれることもあり、ポスターやブロマイドも人気を博していました。武子さまは、詩人としても有名で、

無数のひとみかがやけば 歓喜になごむわがこころ
ガンジス河のまさごより あまのおわする仏たち
夜昼つねにまもらすと 聞くになごめるわがこころ

この詩では武子さまは星と仏さまを重ねて表現されておられます。そしてその星や仏さま方は死と関連しています。輝く星と光きらめく仏様の明るさが詩の表面にありますが、死の暗さや闇も背後に読み取れます。

古来より人は死んだら星になると、詩的に表現されている事例がありますし、浄土真宗では死んだら阿弥陀さまの願力によって、お浄土に生まれ、仏にしてくださる、との死後観があります。死んで星となり、仏様となられた家族や友人が私を見守ってくださっていると思えば、心が安らかになるね、とうたっておられるのです。武子さまのご先祖であられる親鸞聖人は、ご和讃で

南無阿弥陀仏をとふれば
十方無量の諸仏は
百重千重圍繞して
よろこびまもりたまふなり

とガンジス河の砂の数より多くいらっしゃる仏さまが私を喜んで守ってくださっていると、詠んでおられます。

南無阿弥陀仏

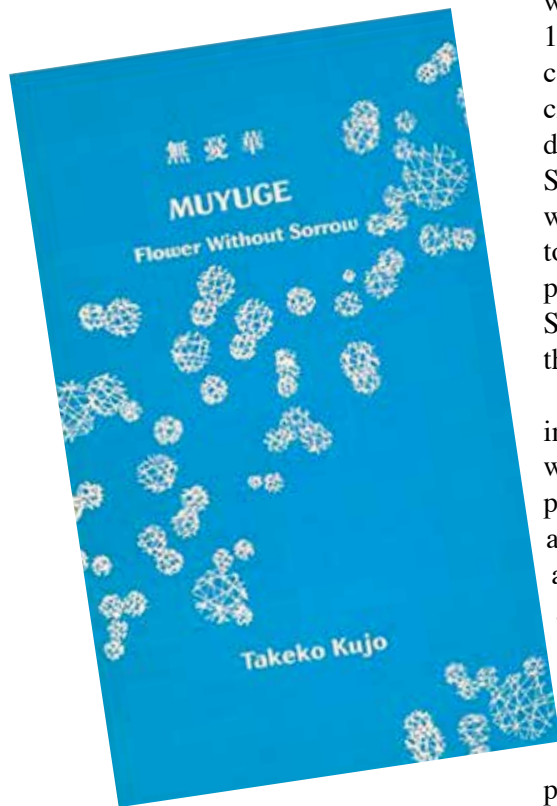

この詞は九条武子さまが書かれたものです。九条武子さま（1887-1928）は第22代ご門主の大谷光瑞猥下の妹さんです。九条家にとつがれたので名字が九条になっておられます。その九条家から、大谷光瑞門主とご結婚されて本願寺のお裏方になられたのが、籌子（かずこ）さまです。

籌子さまと武子さまは仏教婦人会の創立者として知られています。1907年に婦人会を組織した後、若い世代に仏教精神に基づいた教育を施すため、現在の京都女子高校と京都女子大学を創立しました。

1927年に「無憂華」という詩とエッセイ集が出版され、ベストセラーとなりましたが、その翌年、震災の復興事業などで無理をされ、42歳の若さで往生されました。その後、武子さまの人生を描いた映画が製作され、武子さまの死を悼んで、日本中の人々が映画館におしよせたそうです。

仏教讃歌の「聖夜」は武子さまの本「無憂華」に掲載されています。星の夜空の美しさ たれかは知るや天のなぞ

Senshin-ji Building Fund November 2016 Update

ソーシャルホールの改築工事が始まり2月たちました。内部の解体が進むにつれ、電気、配管、また屋根に置かれる新しい空調機械の目隠しの為のパラペットなど、追加工事が出ています。これらは全て設計の時には予想できなかったことで、市当局の検査官に指示に

As this article is being written, it has been exactly two months since the remodeling of the Social Hall began on August 8. There has been significant progress, but unfortunately, a few more unexpected issues have arisen beyond those described in last month's article. Most of these issues this work is completed, it will give the illusion that the Social Hall is two stories tall!

The LADWP required that we install a larger electrical cabinet, which would have to be ground-mounted on a new concrete pad instead of being wall-mounted as originally designed. An even heavier impact resulted from the LADWP's requirement that all electrical service cables from their power poles had to be buried rather than strung from their overhead wires to the cabinet location. Due to the size of the cables and the conduit that protects the cables, a 7-foot deep trench, 3 feet wide, had to be dug with heavy machinery across the width of the parking lot. This work alone added a significant amount of cost to the overall project, but we had no choice. Without this buried cable, the LADWP would not approve electrical service to be turned on for the remodeled Social Hall.

At this point, we seem to have jumped the most important and significant hurdles, and we are hoping that the remainder of the construction work and installations will proceed with no further delays and with no further cost increases. We should have a much better assessment of this in next month's article.

Quite a few temple members have had input into various aspects of the are directly related to directives of the building inspectors who visit the site at each stage of the construction work. As such, we have to comply with their directions, most of which involve various building codes and laws.

The interior of the building underwent a significant amount of gutting in order to prepare it for new electrical and plumbing installations, as well as to repair and replace some severe termite- and water-damaged wood. Environmental inspectors determined that the planned height of the parapets (vertical wall extensions) was too short, so the contractors were ordered to make them taller in order to completely screen the roof-mounted HVAC equipment from the view of pedestrians walking along adjacent sidewalks and streets. This change required a revision of the construction plans in order to fully comply. When oven and range, and the layout/design of the kitchen millwork (cabinetry). It is especially important to offer our deep thanks to Russell Nishida and his business (Basically Cabinets, Inc.) for taking on the critical task of designing the kitchen. Russell has spent many hours working on this over the past couple of months, and he has coordinated meetings attended by various temple members who volunteered to give input to the design. He will be taking all of the comments and suggestions into account to produce a final kitchen layout.

There are sure to be some additional revisions required by the inspectors, but we hope that they will not be too involved or too costly. To be truthful, some of the added requirements have been mind-numbing, but inescapable. We will have to deal with it.

Again, thank you all for hanging in there with us while this project works towards completion.

NOTE: In order to maintain compliance with IRS policy, whenever we receive a check in the amount of $250.00 or more, we will send an acknowledgement letter to the donor for his/her records. Senshin Vehicle Donation

This is a reminder that Senshin will take any vehicle (car, pickup, truck, motorcycle, and even boat) as a donation to the temple. The funds realized from these donations are earmarked for the Senshin-ji Building Fund. Donors can report the full amount of funds received from the vehicle donation as a deduction on their tax returns.

We work with Harold's Car Donation Service (HCDS) to have the vehicles picked up, processed and refurbished as necessary to bring in the highest sale amount for the donated vehicle. Even if the vehicle is not operational, it can still have salvageable value, sometimes for more than we could expect.

Once the proceeds from the vehicle donation are received by Senshin, a letter is sent to the donor to acknowledge the vehicle donation. The letter includes details of the donated vehicle and the amount for which the vehicle was sold or salvaged. All donors will be acknowledged in the Prajna.

If you have any questions about the program, or wish to donate a vehicle, please contact either Jean Minami (323) 938-0048, or Wilbur Takashima (310) 398-9558.

College Savings 529 Plan

Senshin has a College Savings 529 Plan to help with the costs of higher education for our minister's family.

Contributing to this fund will provide tax-free income for the minister's children when they are college age. In eight years at 7%, monies put in today could almost double by the time they are ready to go to college.

If you would like to contribute, you have two options:

1. Write a check out to Senshin Buddhist Temple along with a memo or note indicating you would like to contribute to the 529 account. Your contribution is not considered a tax-deductible donation.
2. You can write a check out to MESP (Michigan Education Savings Program) and mail it directly to PO Box 55925, Boston, MA 02205-5925. Be sure to send a note indicating the contribution is to go to the Senshin Buddhist Temple, Account #9393725.

If you write a check to Senshin, there is no minimum. If you write a check to MESP, the check must be $25 or more.

Owned by the temple, the intention of the fund is to provide additional support to its minister and family.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Doug Aihara at (213) 626-9625 or at douga@aihara-associates.com.

Our Raku/Tea Class was a huge success, and I wanted to extend thanks to Rev. Mas for again delivering an amazing talk on tea before we enjoyed drinking matcha and a sweet from the wares we made. Rev. Mas spoke about, and had us sample, the teas we grew up with as Japanese Americans, quite different than the tea we were about to taste. I asked a volunteer from the class to write something for the Prajna, Amy Yukawa:

Greetings from WasabiKai!

As a newbie to the experience I have to say it was fantastic! If you don't mind getting your hands dirty or adding a bit of culture to your life, come join the action. We just completed our RAKU session and all I can say is WOW, what a thrill it was to see our creations emerge from the firing and cooling process.

No experience required, only a will to create and enjoy the company of your fellow potters/temple members. Come visit the studio to see our wares and see what you can do.....
